The PATS commitment

As PATS members, we are committed:

1. To assess the training needs of our passenger assistants so that the training they receive recognises the nature of their duties and the needs of their passengers
2. To ensure that training is provided in accordance with the PATS trainers materials
3. To review the training needs of our passenger assistants periodically and provide additional training where there has been a change in circumstances
4. To accept the certificates of passenger assistants who were trained by other PATS members as evidence of the training they have already received.

My organisation wishes to become a PATS member and agrees to comply with the terms of the PATS commitment.
